

Bio: Dean DeRolph
Owner of Kumler Collision and Automotive.

Dean is very active in his industry as well as our community. He is a member of the Automotive Service Association, the Society of Collision Repair Specialists, the National Autobody Council and is past President of the Ohio Collision Repair Board.

Along with the Port Authority, Dean is a Rotarian and serves on the boards of the Route 33 Growth Alliance, Park National Bank, Fairfield Foundation and is a Trustee for St Peters Lutheran Church.

Dean has been married to his wife Cathie for 50 years. They enjoy living on Buckeye Lake, boating, camping, traveling, and spending time with their son Ben and daughter Brianne.