

For Immediate Release

January 18, 2022

Lancaster Port Authority Hires New Assistant Director

LANCASTER (Ohio) – The City of Lancaster announced today that Stephanie Bosco has joined the Lancaster Port Authority as the Assistant Director. Prior to joining the Lancaster Port Authority, Stephanie worked as the Economic Development Manager for the City of Grove City.

“The Assistant Director will be involved in all aspects of both City economic development and Lancaster Port Authority activities to retain, attract, and grow industry that will create jobs in Lancaster. Stephanie’s skillset complements my own and together we will make a great team to drive more successes” said R. Michael Pettit, Executive Director.

“I’m thrilled to join the Lancaster Port Authority and the collaborative community that supports LPA’s strategic initiatives, most notably Mayor Scheffler and the LPA board of directors,” said Stephanie Bosco. “I look forward to continuing LPA’s reputation of preparedness that makes it easy for companies to choose to locate in Lancaster, Ohio.”

Stephanie is a graduate from the University of Cincinnati and began her economic development career in 2010 as project management specialist for One Columbus. She currently serves as a board member for the Mid-Ohio Development Exchange and lives in the City of Bexley with her husband and daughter.

The Lancaster Port Authority is proud to foster opportunities that enriches our community and its people while supporting a dynamic and innovative economy. From creation and expansion to partnerships and development, we are constantly cultivating a community of successful industries that drives attention and growth in our area. For more information on the City of Lancaster, visit www.lancasterportauthority.com.

###